pack /pæk/ 1 [also 又作 D1; I0] to put (things, esp one's belongings) into cases, boxes, etc, for travelling or storing 捆扎; 包装; 把打包 (或装箱等); 整理行装; 打点行李: Let's pack some food and go out for the day. 我们带些食物, 出去

玩一天吧。He ate a packed lunch. 他吃了整盒带去的午餐。You can pack some of your clothes in my case if you like. 要是你愿意的话, 可以把一部分衣服放在我的箱子里。She packed her husband some eggs for his dinner. 她给丈夫包了几个鸡蛋作晚餐。We leave tomorrow but I haven't begun to pack yet! 我们明天就要动身, 可我还没开始收拾行李呢! 2 [X9; L9] to fit, crush, or push into a space 挤进; 塞满; 装满: If you pack those things down we can get a little more in the box. 如果你把那些东西压紧些, 箱子里就可以多装点东西。The railwaymen were packing the people into the train like animals. 列车员把乘客像牲口一样往车厢里塞。The moment the door was opened, people began to pack into the hall. 门一打开, 人们就拥进大厅内。The speaker spoke to a packed hall. 演讲人向挤满大厅的听众讲话。 3 [X9; I0] to settle or be driven closely together or into a mass 使...聚集一起; 群集: The wind packed the snow against the side of the house. 风把雪花吹积在房子的一边。The sea is very dangerous when the ice begins to pack in this way. 当浮冰如此挤轧成堆时, 大海是很危险的。 4 [L9] to be suitable for easy putting into cases, boxes, etc 易于包装: These bottles pack easily, but the others do not, because of their shape. 这些瓶子容易包装, 但其余的瓶子由于它们的形状就不好包装了。 5 to prepare and put (food) into tins or other containers for preserving or selling in shops 把(食品等)装罐: They intend to build a factory here for packing the fruit that grows locally. 他们打算在这里修建一座工厂, 把当地出产的水果制成罐头。 6 to cover, fill, or surround closely with a protective material 填塞(空隙、漏缝等); 把...包(或垫)起来: These pipes should be packed, to prevent them from leaking. 这些管子应填塞起来以防渗漏。Pack some paper round the dishes in the box so that they will not break. 箱子周围的垫上些纸, 就不会打碎了。

cover /'kʌvə/ to place or spread something over (something), esp a parcel or to make a parcel 盖; 覆盖; 包(包裹等): He covered the books with paper. 他用纸给书包了封面。Have you anything to cover these things with? 你有什么可包这些东西的吗?

sheathe /ʃi:ð/ 1 to put into a sheath 把...插入鞘: He sheathed his sword. 他把剑插入鞘内。 2 [(with, in)] to enclose in a protective outer cover 包; 覆盖

Electricity and electrical equipment

电与电器设备

H200 nouns 名词: electricity, etc [U] 电等 electricity /i,lek'trɪsəti/ 1 the power that is produced by rubbing (friction) or by chemical means (a battery) or by a machine called a generator and which gives heat, light, and sound and drives machines 电 2 electric current 电流: They turned off the electricity in the house when they left. 他们离开房子时把电源切断了。 electronics /i,lek'trɒnɪks/ 1 the branch of science that deals with the behaviour of electrons [→H5] 电子学 2 the branch of industry that manufactures such products as radio, television, and recording apparatus, whose operation depends on the behaviour of electrons 电子工业: The electronics industry is growing very fast. 电子工业发展非常迅速。He is in electronics. 他是搞电子工业的。 magnetism /'mægnətɪzəm/ 1 the science dealing with the qualities of a magnet [→H122] 磁学 2 the quality of strong magnetic attraction 磁; 磁力; 磁性 3 (fig) strong personal charm; the power to attract people, etc 魅力; 吸引力: She has great personal magnetism. 她很有魅力。

H201 adjectives 形容词: relating to electricity, etc [Wa5; B] 有关电的等

electric /i'lektrɪk/ precise & tech 1 (of machines) producing electricity (指机器) 发电的: They have an electric generator [→H114] which uses oil and makes all the electricity for the farm. 他们有一台柴油发电机, 发电供农场使用。 2 worked by electricity 电动的: We have an electric clock and an electric fire. 我们有电钟和电炉。She uses an electric iron to press her clothes. 她用电熨斗烫衣服。 3 being electricity 电的; 是电的: The wire carries an electric current/charge. 电线传送电流/电荷。(fig) His exciting speech had an electric effect upon all the listeners. 他那动人的演说让全体听众感到极为振奋。 electrical /i'lektrɪkəl/ genl concerned with electricity 电的; 与电有关的: An electrical engineer works with many sorts of electrical apparatus. 电机工程师接触许多种电气设备。

USAGE [用法说明] Anything directly worked by or producing electricity is electric 任何直接用电的或产生电的东西都用 electric: an electric clock/shock/light/generator 电钟/电击/电灯/发电机 Otherwise, the word is electrical, which is a more general expression, used of people and their work or of things 其他场合用 electrical, 它的用途更广泛, 可指人、工作或事物: an electrical engineer/an electrical apparatus/an electrical fault in the system 电机工程师/电气设备/系统中的电气故障 electronic /i,lek'trɒnɪk/ 1 connected with electrons [→H5] 电子的; 与电子有关的 2 connected with any apparatus that works by electronics 电子仪器的; 电子操纵的 3 (of music) produced by means of electronics (指音乐) 靠电子产生的 magnetic /mæg'netɪk/ having the qualities of a magnet [→H122] 磁的; 磁性的: The iron has lost its magnetic force. 这块铁已失去磁力. (fig) He has a very magnetic personality; he attracts almost everybody he meets. 他的个性很有魅力, 见到的人几乎都被他吸引.

H202 nouns 名词: flow, current, and charges [C; U] 电流与电荷 flow /fləʊ/ the movement of electricity, esp along a wire 电 (沿导线) 的流动; 电流

current /'kʌrənt/ the (rate of) flow of electricity past a fixed point, measured in amp(ere)s [→ H207] 电流; 电流强度 direct current (abbrev DC) electric current that flows in one direction only 直流 (电) alternating current (abbrev AC) electric current which flows in one direction then in the opposite direction and so on at regular short intervals of time 交流 (电) input /'ɪn.pʊt/ an electrical current put in (to any machine, system, etc) 输入电流 output /'aʊt.pʊt/ electric current coming out (of any machine, system, etc) 输出电流 charge /tʃɑ:dʒ/ (a quantity of) electricity put into a battery [→ H208] or other electrical apparatus 电荷 (量); 电负荷 (量): The charge was too great for the fine wire, which melted as a result. 这细电线的电负荷量过大, 结果熔化了.

discharge /dɪs'tʃɑ:dʒ/ electricity which is discharged [→ H203] 放电: There was a sudden discharge (of electricity), but no one was hurt. 突然发生了放电, 但没有伤人.

H203 verbs 动词: relating to electricity 与电有关的 flow /fləʊ/ [IØ] (of electricity) to move in one direction, esp along a wire (电) 流动 (尤指沿导线) charge /tʃɑ:dʒ/ [Wv5 (with); T1; IØ] to (cause to) take in the correct amount of electricity 给...充电; (使...)带电: He charged the battery (with electricity). 他给电池充了电. Does the battery [→ H208] charge easily? 这电池容易充电吗?

discharge /dɪs'tʃɑ:dʒ/ 1 [IØ] (of an electrical apparatus) to send out (electricity) (指电气设备) 放电 2 [T1] to remove electricity from (an electrical apparatus) 使电 (从电气设备) 放出 conduct /kən'dʌkt/ [T1; IØ] to act as the path for (electricity, heat, etc) 传导; 传 (热、电等): Copper conducts electricity well. 铜的导电性能好. Plastic doesn't conduct. 塑料不导电. conductor [C] a substance or object that conducts electricity, heat, sound etc 导体; 导线: Iron is a good conductor of electricity and heat. 铁是电和热的优良导体.

generate /'dʒenə.reɪt/ [Wv4; T1] to produce (electricity or heat) 产生 (电或热): Two surfaces rubbing together generate heat. 两个面

起摩擦能产生热. Our electricity comes from a new generating station. 我们的电由一座新发电站供给. generation [U] the act of generating electricity, etc 发电 (等)

H204 nouns 名词: technical terms in electricity [U] 关于电流的术语 conduction /kən'dʌkʃən/ the passage of electricity along a wire (电流的) 传导 conductance /kən'dʌktəns/ the ability of a conductor to carry electricity (电流的) 传导性; 导电性 resistance /rɪ'zɪstəns/ the power of a substance to resist (= to stop) an electric current passing through it 电阻: Copper has less resistance to electricity than lead. 铜的电阻比铅的电阻小. [ALSO → H207 VOLT] resistor [C] a piece of wire or other material used for increasing electrical resistance 电阻器 inductance /ɪn'dʌktəns/ the causing of movement electrically by a change in the current 电感 induction /ɪn'dʌkʃən/ the production of electricity in one object by another which already has electrical or magnetic power (电或磁的) 感应; 感应现象 capacitance /kə'pæsətəns/ the ability of a non-conductor to store electricity 电容; 电容量

H205 nouns, etc 名词等: electrical poles, etc [C] 电极等 earth /ɜ:θ/ BrE ground /graʊnd/ AmE 1 [(the) C usu sing] the wire which connects a piece of electrical apparatus to the ground 地线 2 [T1] to connect (a piece of electrical apparatus) to the ground 给...接地线: The radio ought to be properly earthed. 应该给收音机接好地线.

pole /pəʊl/ 1 either of the points at the ends of a magnet [→ H122] where its power of pulling iron towards itself is greatest 极 (点); 磁极 2 either of the two points at which wires may be fixed onto a battery [→ H208] in order to use that electricity 电极

anode /'ænoʊd/ tech the part of an electrical instrument, such as a battery, which collects electrons [→ H5], often a rod or wire, shown as (+) 阳极; 正电极 (符号是“+”) positive pole 1 an anode 正极; 阳极 2 the end of a magnet which naturally turns towards the earth (磁体的) 指北极; 正磁极 cathode /'kæθəʊd/ tech the part of an electrical instrument, such as a battery, from which electrons leave, often a rod or wire, shown as (-) 阴极; 负电极 (符号是“-”) negative pole 1 a cathode 阴极; 负电极 2 the end of a magnet which naturally turns away from the earth (磁体的) 指南极; 负磁极

H206 adjectives 形容词: positive, negative, and live [Wa5: B] 正的、负的与通电的 positive /'pɒzətɪv/ (of or in electricity) of the type that is produced by rubbing glass with silk, caused by a lack of electrons [↗H5] and has the sign (+) 正的; 阳性的 (符号是“+”) negative /'negətɪv/ (of or in electricity) of the type caused by more than enough electrons and has the sign (-) 负的; 阴性的 (符号是“-”) live /laɪv/ carrying an electric current 通电的; 带电的: Don't touch that wire; it's live. 别碰那根电线, 它有电。

H207 nouns 名词: standard units of electricity [C] 电的标准单位 amp /æmp/ the standard measure of the quantity of electricity that is flowing past a point 安培 (电流强度单位): From the main electricity system in a house which might have a current of 30 amps, you could run smaller systems of 2 amps, 5 amps, 15 amps, etc. 家中电源的电流强度如果是三十安培, 那么你可使用二安培、五安培、十五安培等电流强度较小的电路装置。

ampere /'æmpeə/ fml an amp 安培 amperage [U] the strength of an electric current measured in amps, as in an electricity system or as used by an electrical instrument 电流强度; 安培数

volt /vɔlt/ (a standard measure of electrical force used in causing a flow along wires, equal to) the amount needed to produce one amp of electrical current where the resistance [↗H204] of the conductor [↗H203] is one ohm 伏特; 伏 (电压单位) voltage [U] electrical force measured in volts 电压; 伏特数

ohm /ɔm/ a measure of electrical resistance 欧姆 (电阻单位)

watt /wɒt/ a measure of electrical power 瓦特; 瓦 (电的功率单位): A kilowatt is a thousand watts. 一瓦就是一千瓦 (特)。 He used a 30-watt bulb. 他用三十瓦的灯泡。 wattage [U] electrical power in watts 瓦 (特) 数: This electrical apparatus has a wattage of 3 kilowatts. 这件电器的瓦数是三千瓦。

H208 nouns 名词: wires, circuits, and fuses, etc 电线、电路与保险丝等

[ALSO ⇒ N323]

wire /waɪə/ [C; U] a long thread of metal used for carrying electricity 电线; 导线: Make sure the wires are not touching each other. 务必不要让这些电线互相接触。 Usually wires are covered with plastic so that people won't get a shock from them. 电线通常用塑料包裹, 这样人们就不会触电。

wiring /waɪɪŋ/ [U] the arrangement or quality of the wired electrical system in a building 配线; 接线; 布线: This old wiring must be changed soon; it is dangerous. 这旧的电线线路应该立即换掉; 它现在很危险。 lead /li:d/ [C] an electric wire for taking power from the supply point to an instrument, etc 导线; 引线 circuit /sɜ:kɪt/ [C] the complete path of an electric current 电路; 回路: A break in the circuit had caused the lights to go out. 电路中断使电灯都灭了。 printed circuit [C] a set of connections between points in an electrical apparatus made by means of putting onto a surface a continuous line of a substance that will carry electricity 印刷电路 load /ləʊd/ [C] the power of an electricity supply; how much electricity the wiring of a machine, place, etc, can carry 发电量; (机器等电线的) 载荷; 负载 shock /ʃɒk/ [C; U] the sudden violent effect of electricity passing through the body (电流通过身体引起的) 电震; 电击: The wire is covered with plastic to prevent shock. 电线用塑料包裹以防发生电击。 You'll get a bad shock if you touch the bare wire. 如果你触摸裸露的电线就会受到强烈的电击。 fuse /fju:z/ 1 [C] a (small container with a) short piece of wire placed in an electric apparatus or in an electric system, which melts if too much electric power passes through it, and thus breaks the connection and prevents fires or other damage 保险丝; 熔丝; 保险盒: A fuse has blown (= been destroyed by melting), causing the lights to fail. 一根保险丝烧断了, 电灯都灭了。 2 [S] infml a failure of electric power, due to the melting of one of these (因保险丝熔断而) 断电: The lights at the end of the house have gone out; has there been a fuse somewhere? 房子那头的电灯熄灭了; 是什么地方的保险丝烧断了吧?

J48 using and saying numbers in special combinations 以特定形式使用与 读出数字

1 Large numbers 大的数字
It is common nowadays in Br, US and many other countries to use a space to separate thousands, but various conventions exist 现在在英美和其它许多国家里,通常用空位把每位数字分开来写,但也有各种不同的习惯做法:

General 通用的

23 456 768

Br/US 英/美

23,456,768

Continental Europe etc 欧洲大陆等

23.456.768

When saying such large numbers, always remember in BrE to put and after any hundred 在说这样的大数字时,英国人总是在 hundred 后面加上 and, 例如:

234 two hundred and thirty-four 二百三十四

2,345 two thousand, three hundred and forty-five 二千三百四十五

2,901 two thousand, nine hundred and one 二千九百零一

35,897 thirty-five thousand, eight hundred and ninety-seven 三万五千八百九十七

987,234 nine hundred and eighty-seven thousand, two hundred and thirty-four 九十八万七千二百三十四

2 Computer numbers 电子计算机/电脑数字

These are now common for business accounts and cheques, and are said in pairs, with double numbers as follows 这些数字在商业帐目和支票中是常用的,说时要两个数字两个数字成对地说,例如:

45673289 four-five six-seven three-two eight-nine 四五一六七三二八九

45663277 four-five double-six (six-six) three-two double-seven (seven-seven) 四五六六三二七七

3 Telephoning 打电话

When telephoning or giving a telephone number 在打电话或说电话号码时:

(1) use only single numbers up to nine 只用到9的单个数字

(2) pronounce 0 as o/nought/zero 把0读作o或nought或zero

(3) give the same number as either 'double' or simply repeated 两个相同的数字连在一起时,可用 double 或重复读出: 22 double-two (two-two) examples 例如:

3476 three-four seven-six 三四七六

336 3562 three-three-six three-five six-two 三三六三五六二

999 (Br emergency number 英国紧急召援电话号码) nine-nine-nine 九九九

031-667-4567 o-three-one six-six-seven/double-six seven four-five six-seven 零三一六六七四五六七

4 For body measurements 测量人体时用 (See also 又见 Weights and Measures → J66)

Height 身高 (Traditional 传统说法)

I am five foot eight (inches) (tall). 我身高五英尺八(英寸).

(Metric 公制; 十进制)

She is one metre sixty-four (centimetres). 她身高一米六四.

Weight 体重 (Traditional 传统说法)

Br (英): He is eleven stones five pounds. 他体重十一英石五磅(即一百五十九磅).

US (美): She is a hundred and twenty-six pounds. 她体重一百二十六磅.

(Metric 公制; 十进制)

He is seventy-nine kilos/kilograms. 他体重七十九公斤.

Round the Body 身围

(for Women 指妇女的胸围、腰围、臀围)

(Traditional 传统说法)

She is 36-24-36. (in.) 她的三围是36-24-36(英寸).

(Metric 公制; 十进制)

She is 91-61-91. (cent.) 她的三围是91-61-91(厘米).

5 Vulgar fractions 普通分数

$\frac{1}{2}$ or 1/2 a half; one half 二分之一 [pl] halves; [T1] to halve 把...分成两半

$\frac{1}{4}$ or 1/4 a quarter; one quarter 四分之一 [T1] to quarter 把...分成四分

$\frac{1}{3}$ or 1/3 a third; one third 三分之一

$\frac{3}{4}$ or 3/4 three-quarters 四分之三

$\frac{2}{3}$ or 2/3 two-thirds 三分之二

$\frac{1}{5}$ or 1/5 a fifth; one fifth 五分之一

$\frac{4}{5}$ or 4/5 four-fifths 五分之四

$29\frac{3}{4}$ twenty-nine and three-quarters 二十九又四分之三

6 Decimal fractions 小数

.5 or 0.5 point five or (more accurately) nought point five 零点五

.75 or 0.75 point seven five or nought point seven five 零点七五

23.33 twenty-three point three three 二十三点三三

NOTE [注释]

(1) In most European countries a comma is used for the Br/US decimal point. Thus, 23.33 is 23,33 in France. 在多数欧洲国家里,用逗号“,”代替英美使用的小数点“.”,例如在法国,23.33写成23,33.

(2) A point is also used for currency, but is not pronounced 小数点也用于货币中,但不读出声音,例如:

£2.50 two pound(s) fifty (pence) 两英镑五十(便士)

$5.30 five dollars thirty; five dollars and thirty cents 五元三十(分)

Notes [注释]

- 1 The Latin compounding elements deci- (ten), centi- (hundred), and milli- (thousand) are used for fractions of a metric unit: one tenth, one hundredth, and one thousandth respectively. 拉丁语构词成分 deci- (十)、centi- (百) 和 milli- (千) 是用来表示公制单位的小数, 依次为十分之一、百分之一和千分之一。
- 2 The Greek compounding elements deca- (ten), hecto- (hundred), and kilo- (thousand) are used for multiplications of a metric unit; ten times, a hundred times, and a thousand times respectively. Mega- stands for a million times. 希腊语构词成分 deca- (十)、hecto- (百) 和 kilo- (千) 是用来表示公制单位的倍数, 依次为十倍、百倍和千倍。 Mega- 表示百万倍。

USAGE [用法说明]: In writing abbreviations of weights and measures, many people add an 's' for plurals: ozs, lbs, cms, etc, for oz, lb, cm. 用度量衡的缩写形式时, 许多人加 's' 表示复数, 如用 ozs, lbs, cms 等而不用 oz, lb, cm. In US spelling all -tre forms are -ter: meter, liter, etc. 在美式拼法中, 所有的 -tre 都写成 -ter, 例如 meter, liter 等. For measurement of volume, cubic is generally used in both systems: cubic inches, cubic centimetres, etc. 量度体积时, 'cubic' 一词两种制度都通用, 如 cubic inches (立方英寸), cubic centimetres (立方厘米) 等。
